

Yone Dewberry

Chief Supply Chain Officer

As chief supply chain officer, Yone is responsible for aligning all key supply chain functions – supply chain strategy, supply and demand planning, transportation, warehousing, analytics, talent management and procurement – and focusing on supply chain talent development. Yone was promoted to CSCO in May 2017.

He joined Land O'Lakes, Inc. in 2008 as director of planning for the dairy foods business. Before joining Land O'Lakes, he spent 12 years traveling extensively throughout the world as a supply chain consultant and for 15 years working for fast moving consumer goods and chemical companies. Yone earned his MBA from Lehigh University and his bachelor's from the University of Pennsylvania.
